

Amy Voigt Xenofos

Assistant Chief Counsel for General Law, NASA

Amy Xenofos is the Assistant Chief Counsel for the General Law and External Partnerships at NASA's Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas and has been with NASA since August 2000. Her areas of responsibility include government ethics, personnel/equal employment opportunity matters, environmental and real property matters, tort claims and litigation, internal NASA policies and processes, fiscal law, Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act matters, and agreement and partnerships using NASA's "other transactions" authority. Ms. Xenofos served as the legal advisor to the NASA Headquarters serving as lead counsel for the Exploration Systems Mission Directorate and 6 months in the Office of Procurement working on procurement policy matters. She received her juris doctorate, cum laude, from The Florida State University College of Law in 2000 and is an active member of the Florida Bar and the American Bar Association.