

Andrea M. Palmer is an associate at Anderson & Riddle, LLP, in Fort Worth, Texas. Her practice focuses on aviation litigation and probate. She attended the University of Texas at Austin, where she studied History and Business, with a concentration in American and European History. After college Andrea spent a year abroad, teaching business English while living in Prague, Czech Republic.

Andrea attended Baylor Law School on full academic scholarship, graduating with honors in 2013. While at Baylor, Andrea was selected for Baylor's renowned Moot Court Team, as well as for Baylor's prestigious Mock Trial Team, and she competed at the national level. At the National Civil Trial Competition in Los Angeles, California, Andrea earned the title of second-best advocate.

Andrea is admitted in Texas (2013) and the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas (2013). She serves on the Board of Directors for the Tarrant County Young Lawyers Association, and has been recognized as a Top Attorney by Fort Worth Magazine and 360 West Magazine, and a Rising Star by Superlawyers.